

Case Managers

We currently have seven senior doctors working as case managers within the Professional Support and Wellbeing Service, all of whom have experience of educational leadership roles and complex training. If appropriate, a referred doctor will be allocated a case manager who will contact them to begin their one-to-one virtual coaching style sessions.

