ES Biography:	Who am I? I am a Sheffield dental school graduate. Graduating in 2004. I
----------------------	---

	completed my DF equivalent in Sheffield and stayed on at my training practices until relocating to the North West in 2011. My role in Sheffield consisted of General Dentistry and being an Honoray Clinical Lecturer for their undergraduate outreach programme. I continued clinical supervision of dental students at my next role at the Enhanced Training Practice in Burnley, Lancashire. There I supervised UCLAN dental and HT students along side my GDP role. I did this until taking up a clinical supervisor role at Oak House Dental Education Centre also supervising UCLAN dental students. In 2016 I became practice principle at Kingswater Dental Practice where I work along side Dental Therapists, DCPs and support staff. With the help of the team we have grown the practice and take pride in being a friendly and approachable who support or patients and team members. I enjoy teaching and helping junior colleagues learn from my own experience. I have a keen interest in orthodontics and am currently studying for a diploma. Whilst not at the practice I enjoy music, movie watching, listening to podcasts and personal development books. I enjoy spending time with family on camping trips, holidays and exploring outdoors.
