

Royal Oldham Hospital

100,000+ patients per year

10 consultants (9 whole time equivalents)

9 “Registrar” Grade rota with weekends 2 in 7

A busy department and named Trauma unit with a Team ethos. Trainees welcomed as integral members of our Team. Evidence based care – early adopters.

Education recognised as a priority:

- Protected weekly teaching (in addition to full STEM compliance)
- EMoldham Journal club Blog
- Weekly in department Sim Training
- 4 Level 1 ultrasound trained staff
- FRCER and MRCEM OSCE practice afternoons
- Departmental website www.emoldham.com – blogs, guidelines, teaching, events

Consultant interests:

Rip Gangahar – Ultrasound (World expert and US level 1 and finishing school leader)

Mark Riley – Critical Care

Jodie Wilkinson – Joint Intensive Care and Emergency Medicine Consultant, Trauma

Mohammed Zahir – Education

Nick Gili – Medical Leadership and Health Technology – Website Manager

Tom Bartram – Public health, Education and Health Technology

Other Highlights

Friendly motivated Consultant Team – shop-floor direct clinical care 0800-2200

Flexible annual leave arrangements

Research opportunities – multiple on-going research activities with a research department willing to engage with new ideas